A Heart to Heart Farewell

It has been twenty years—twenty years of new friends and new faces, twenty years of amazing talks and inspired presentations, twenty year of heartfelt prayers and honest questions, twenty years of growth in faith and holiness.

Please join us, one and all, men and women alike, for our final gathering as members and friends of Heart to Heart Apostolate. Al Kresta will lead our time of reflection, and our past speakers have also been invited to share their thoughts. Come join us for one final time as we come together as a unique community of believers, gathered from all over southeast Michigan and beyond.

Our meetings have always been a God-inspired gathering of remarkable speakers and faith-seeking attendees. This final night is no exception! Without you, our members and friends, there is no Heart to Heart Apostolate.

Please join us for Mass at Christ the King Parish, followed by light refreshments in “the red barn” at Christ the King. Our evening will culminate with Al Kresta’s reflection, and an “open mic” time for some of our past speakers. Finally, we will close with prayers of thanksgiving for the work Our Lord and Our Lady have done through the efforts of Heart to Heart Apostolate. An evening not to be missed!
